Your signature below indicates your understanding and acceptance of the following:

- Adopting an animal is a long-term personal and financial commitment, often years in duration, and a very serious undertaking.
- Pets must be licensed with your town annually, wear a collar and tags at all times, and kept up-to-date on all vaccinations.
- Shelter animals may have unknown medical conditions. Upon adopting an animal, you are responsible for taking it to your veterinarian for a check-up within 7 days. Necessary treatment and costs associated with its care and keeping are your responsibility.
- You may return an animal within 7 days if a previously unknown medical condition is documented by your veterinarian.
- You may return an animal at any time if your circumstances change and caring for the animal is no longer possible.

I certify that the information I have provided on this application is complete and accurate. I hereby authorize the release to the shelter of pertinent information regarding employment verification, proof of tenancy, and veterinary records and references. I understand that false information provided on this application or in person will terminate the adoption process. I understand that Voorhees Animal Orphanage reserves the right to deny an application for adoption at any time.
