

Thank you for raising funds or supplies for the Voorhees Animal Orphanage. We are very grateful to the people who support us through third party events! These events raise awareness and donations, and help to save animal's lives.

As a nonprofit organization that relies heavily on the kindness of the community, these guidelines were established to protect donors, VAO, and you. While many events are simple to organize and host, and some guidelines may not apply to your event, we encourage you to become familiar with them. Thank you for reading them carefully.

Third Party Events

A third party event is an event or promotion that will benefit Voorhees Animal Orphanage ("VAO") and is sponsored by a person or organization ("Organizer") not affiliated with VAO – like you!

All third party events to benefit VAO must be registered and approved by VAO.

Third party events are limited only by the creativity of the Organizer. Event ideas include supply drives, dog washes, golf tournaments, walkathons, adoption carnivals, kitten showers – and more!

Third party events help bring new supporters to VAO when you reach out to your family, co-workers, neighbors, friends, and personal social network, many who may not be aware of VAO's lifesaving work for animals.

How VAO Can Help You

- We can provide a letter of support to validate the authenticity of approved events and Organizers.
- We can publicize your event on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
- We can post a brief update about the success of your event on our Facebook Page.
- We can add your event to our Facebook Events Calendar.
- We can, if possible, provide a staff member or volunteer representative at your event.

The Important Stuff

VAO has a fiduciary duty to ensure our name is being used properly, that all event funds are being handled and accounted for in a reasonable fashion, and that the event is being conducted in a manner consistent with VAO's mission and public image. To that end, all third party events must be registered and approved by VAO prior to any planning or promotion. These may include but are not limited to: online fundraising for specific animals; establishment of percentage shopping affiliations, such as with Amazon or iGive; establishment of online wish lists or shopping lists; and any other online fundraising systems.

As a responsible steward of donated funds, VAO requires that a reasonable percentage of gross revenue from all fundraising events be directed toward the shelter if the event is promoted as benefiting the shelter. Organizers are asked to keep expenses less than 30% of gross revenue.

In the case of a sales promotion where a percentage or portion of proceeds will benefit VAO, the percent or portion donated must be clearly stated by the Organizer in all promotional material. The Organizer will provide an accounting of transactions to donors or VAO if requested.

All approved events should be promoted as “benefiting Voorhees Animal Orphanage.” For example, a car wash may be promoted as “Car Wash to Benefit Voorhees Animal Orphanage” but not “The Voorhees Animal Orphanage Car Wash.” Any use of VAO’s name or logo needs to be approved in advance. VAO’s logo may not be altered in any way.

Organizer is responsible for obtaining the necessary permits, clearances, and insurance coverage as needed. Organizer must determine the amount of insurance required to protect itself from possible claims.

Organizer is responsible for planning and execution of the event, including all setup, promotion, staffing, and financial liability.

Organizer is responsible for complying with all local, state, and IRS regulations regarding the event.

Organizer agrees to indemnify and hold VAO harmless from and against any and all losses, damages, costs, attorney’s fees, expenses, and liabilities incurred in connection with, or in defense of, and claim or action or proceeding arising out of or incurred in connection with the event.

The Really Important Stuff – Tax Deduction and Acknowledgment

Organizers are responsible for collecting the names and contact information of all participants, sponsors, donors, and volunteers (if they choose to be identified) for acknowledgment purposes, and should supply the information to VAO within 30 days of the completion of the event.

PLEASE TAKE NOTE: If a donor makes a contribution directly to VAO, a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, that donation qualifies as tax deductible. However, if a donor makes a contribution to the Organizer, and the Organizer is not an IRS qualified charitable organization, that donation does not qualify as tax deductible.

ADDITIONALLY: Per IRS regulations, all donors must be informed before an event that the tax deductible amount of their contribution is only the value over and above goods or services provided. For example, if a donor pays $200 for a ticket to a golf fundraiser, and the cost to golf is $50, the deductible amount is $150.

Please Do Note:

- VAO cannot pay vendors (caterers, venues, etc.) on the Organizer’s behalf. Organizers assume all responsibility for payments or arrangements for goods and services needed for the event.
- VAO cannot solicit sponsors or participants for your event, and does not provide donor or volunteer contact information.
- VAO cannot staff your event, or guarantee staff attendance.

Finally, VAO reserves the right to decline association with any person or event when it believes such an association may have a negative effect on VAO’s mission or public image. VAO may also decline association for breach of contract, or any other reason, at its discretion.
